Triple Water Sport Exhibition Tomorrow

BATHERS, surfboard riders and sailboat racers will engage in a three-way exhibition here tomorrow afternoon, giving an expected large crowd of beach spectators a novel free show.

The three events will be the third annual mid-Winter Swim, the Open Surfing Championships and National Team Surfing Championships, and a regatta of the Little Ships Division of the Long Beach Yacht Club.

Bathing and surfboard events will be conducted between Rainbow Pier and Silver Spray Pier. The sailboats will round a floating marker off Rainbow Pier, about 1:15 P. M.

The schedule:

12:30 P. M.—Open Surfing Championships.

1:15 P. M.—Sailboats round marker.

1:30 P. M.—Cameras record mid-Winter Swim.

2:30 P. M.—National Team Surfing Championships.

Several hundred bathers, young and old, are expected to enter the surf for a big community splash at 1:30, an annual stunt for benefit of Eastern blizzard-sufferers. Participants don't have to swim. They will wade into the surf and splash.

Entries from 140 men and women surf-riders have been received for the Open Surfing Championships. Individual gold trophies will be awarded the national champion and two runners-up by the Long Beach Amusement League. Medals will be given the next seven place winners.

Fourteen ten-man teams will compete in the National Team Surfing Championships for the Dick Loynes Perpetual Award, a 44-inch silver cup.

The sailboat regatta is the third in the annual mid-Winter series of the Little Ships Club, limited to boats of thirty feet or less. The race will start at the Long Beach Yacht Club at 12:30 P. M., and will reach Rainbow Pier about 1:15 P. M. Among entries are the Picaroon, Cerrus, Mai Kai, Paula Lou, Polly, Zephyr, C-Lark, C-Spray, Guess Again, Bantam, Brant, Red Head, Endeavor and Sky Lark.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Amusement League are cosponsors of the swim and surfing events. Photography will be directed by Ray Chapin of the Long Beach Press Bureau. Pat Carney, chairman of the Junior Chamber publicity committee, is in charge of arrangements.
